JOSH GOLDSTEIN '21

MAJOR: BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION (CONCENTRATION: FINANCE)

MINOR: MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEMS

Since high school, Josh Goldstein has always had an interest in the stock market. The potential future investment manager selected Curry not only for its first-class business program, but because of the dedicated faculty, of which many teach practice and theory, as executives and industry leaders in the field. With close connections to his teachers and advisor, on top of a full collegiate resume—which includes President of the Class of 2021, Business Student Association President, DECA Development Chair, and Secretary of Politics & History Club to name only a few—the senior describes his time at the College as nothing short of exceptional.

“The faculty at Curry care deeply about their students. They work to get to know students on a personal level and it’s that guidance and encouragement that sets you up for success. If you want individual attention from world-class faculty, then Curry is the school for you.”

BEYOND THE MAJOR: GENERAL EDUCATION

Global knowledge. Effective written and oral communication. Critical thinking. Information literacy. Quantitative reasoning. Intercultural sensitivity. Teamwork. Ethical judgment. These are the skills you'll gain as you complete your General Education requirements. Instead of worrying about how many English or math classes you need, you'll embark on a journey of self-discovery as you gain the skills employers want most.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS:

FIRST-YEAR INQUIRY

Explore real-world issues in a small class, working closely with faculty, and begin the ePortfolio of work you'll build throughout your four years at Curry.

BREADTH

Study the sciences, arts, humanities, and social sciences, as you work to expand your knowledge and refine your reading, writing, and reasoning skills.

INTERNATIONAL/GLOBAL INTERDEPENDENCE

Study abroad, take foreign language courses, or benefit from courses with a global focus, and be ready to succeed in today's global economy.

DIVERSITY

Apply knowledge of processes, systems, and relationships to lend your voice to today's most pressing social and political issues.

ACTIVE LEARNING AND WELLNESS

Take your education beyond the classroom, fulfilling these requirements through internships, athletics, and even by taking on leadership roles in campus organizations.

JUNIOR-YEAR INQUIRY

This experience brings together everything you've learned. Round out your ePortfolio, together with a small class exploring key topics relevant to your major.

YOUR EPORTFOLIO

One of the greatest benefits of our Gen Ed program is the ePortfolio. Projects, self-reflection, and career goals – they all come together to paint a picture that helps set you apart as you become experienced and ready for what's next.

DR. SHAVINDRIE “SHAVI” COORAY

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR
BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

How can you use social media for your company? How can the high-tech world impact your career? These are just a couple of the many questions students explore alongside Dr. Cooray, who specializes in Management Information Systems (MIS). She helps students understand how to use technology to their advantage in business, whether they're tweeting, instagramming, or using open-source software. They also learn how to communicate with everyone from developers to end-users.

“My classes are very interactive. I want everyone to come together, ask questions, and discuss ideas. With the small class sizes at Curry, I have the time to invest in each and every student. I feel like I am making a difference, and that means a lot to me.”

MACKENZIE RIDER '21

DOUBLE MAJOR: BIOLOGY AND SOCIOLOGY

MINOR: MATHEMATICS

As a double major in biology and sociology, Mackenzie Rider has a knack for science and a passion for helping others. It wasn't long before she began tutoring freshman and other underclassmen struggling with chemistry, biology or math in the Academic Enrichment Center. Mackenzie also serves as lab assistant to aid faculty with preparations, and helping students understand the fundamentals of experiments.

"The best part about being a tutor is watching someone go from frustrated and stressed to confident. It is incredibly uplifting to know that someone I help is doing better in class due to the time I spend encouraging and working with them. I also love the connections I make with fellow students as I am able to mentor them through their upcoming courses and answer any College questions that they may need help sorting through. I really enjoy being an extra resource for others and helping them in any way that I can."

We are incredibly proud of PAL, our internationally recognized Program for Advancement of Learning, celebrating its 50th anniversary this year! Recognized as the country's first program of its kind, celebrating a longstanding tradition of success, PAL provides academically focused assistance to bright, college-able students with specific language-based learning disabilities, executive function disorders, and/or AD/HD.

PAL students represent about 20% of each entering class. They're leaders at Curry, with many joining our Honors Program and leading the way in the arts, in athletics, and in the classroom. They take on a wide range of careers after Curry and many have gone on to grad school, law school, or doctoral programs.

GAME ON.

Athletics are BIG at Curry. Really big. In fact, nearly a quarter of our undergraduate students play for our Colonels. And the rest? They're a wave of purple cheering the team to victory. A spirit and a Division III experience unlike any other. That's what it means to be a Curry Colonel.

KYLE PEREIRA '21

MAJOR: NURSING

MINOR: BIOLOGY

The opportunity to study nursing and play competitive collegiate football at Curry was “too good to be true” for Kyle Pereira. The beautiful campus and tight-knit community reminded him of his small hometown in Norton and he knew immediately it was the place he would call home. From his fellow teammates and coaches to his faculty mentors in the School of Nursing who inspired his interest in pediatric nursing, Kyle’s “second family” at Curry has motivated him to pursue excellence in all aspects of his life. Outside of his football career and work as a clinical care technician at Tufts Medical Center, he is President of Curry’s Men in Nursing Club, and active member of the Student Nurse Club and Student Athlete Advisory Committee. Besides learning how to speak Portuguese fluently, Kyle aspires to work as a pediatric intensive care nurse and to become licensed as a paramedic to also work part-time at a local fire department.

“From the very start, Curry felt like home. My football teammates and coaching staff are my Curry family. Our coaches are always there for us on and off the field.”

ISMAE BAILEY '21

DOUBLE MAJOR: FORENSIC SCIENCE, BIOLOGY

MINOR: CHEMISTRY

Ismae Bailey has always excelled when it came to the scientific knowledge and technical skills needed for her dream job of becoming a forensic pathologist. But it wasn't until her time at Curry that she developed the essential soft skills including communication and leadership. She attributes her extracurricular campus experiences — which include the Student Government Association, Curry Cares, the Black Student Union, Pre-Health Elite, Living Learning Community Science Scholars Mentor, and a RISE Up Program Mentor — to helping her find her voice, become a confident speaker, and an assertive campus leader and peer mentor.

“At Curry, I’ve stepped out of my comfort zone and am now able to lead my peers, speak up, and ask questions. Without this personal growth, I wouldn’t be as successful as I am in the field where I have to work side-by-side with other investigators.”

LIFE AT CURRY HOUSES AND RESIDENCE HALLS

- Houses welcoming as few as 10 upper-class students
- 1,600 beds for residential students

BEYOND CAMPUS STUDY ABROAD AND STUDY AWAY

Curry is where you explore the world.

WE PROUDLY OFFER MANY WAYS TO STUDY ABROAD.

Along with institutional partnerships offering semester-long study abroad programs in places like Brazil, France, England, and more, you can create your own study abroad opportunity, or go global with our faculty members as part of our short-term, faculty-led courses. These incredible 2- and 3-week excursions take courses out of the classroom to destinations like China, Italy, Mexico, and to our partner sites in England and France. You can also spend a semester closer to home in LA, New York, or Washington, DC, through our Study Away program.

DR. GRANT BURRIER

POLITICS AND HISTORY

Dr. Grant Burrier helps students experience Cuba, Mexico, and Argentina in person. Expert in Central and South American politics, economics, and culture, he leads the Politics and Culture Study Away courses – just one of many opportunities to take your education beyond the states. Students describe their immersive abroad experience as “eye-opening,” “life-changing,” and “a powerful experience.”

VISIT CURRY.EDU/BURRIER

“I try to bring as much of the world as I can into the classroom, but there is absolutely no substitute for actually being there. What I really want to do is transport the students not only to a different environment but to a context where they realize what they’re learning in class actually matters in the real world.”

The possibilities you'll unlock here are endless.

COURTNEY LEE '17

COMMUNICATION

VIDEO PRODUCER AT NASA GODDARD SPACE FLIGHT CENTER

Courtney Lee is making it happen. When she started at Curry, she wasn't even sure what "it" was, but during her junior year, she interned at FOX25 after a conversation with a representative at a booth at the Student Center. Almost right away, she was assigned to shadow Elizabeth Hopkins in the field. She was nervous at first, but was well prepared by the resources available to her as a Curry student.

After graduation, Courtney completed her Master's Degree in Reporting in Public Affairs at American University, where she focused on Broadcast Journalism. She is currently working as the WFIRST Social Media and Outreach Coordinator and Video Producer at NASA Goddard Space Flight Center.

"Since working at NASA, I have found a passion for producing/production, and my television concentration at Curry has prepared me a lot for what I am doing now. It has allowed me to go into meetings and pitch ideas with confidence because I know I have the skills and experience to back them up."
